Fourteen members of the Walking group celebrated another very successful year of weekly walking and talking with a Christmas breakfast at Madeline's cafe in Jells Park.

Several members enjoyed our usual walk around the park and lake prior to a very hearty breakfast.

The staff at Madeline's have patiently looked after us each week with excellent coffee and excelled with our Christmas breakfast.

The group would like to thank our activity leader John Vickers for his support and encouragement. He is always there, rain, hail, or shine, to organise the various walks. Well done John.
