

at the Shrives

Happy hour for November 2023 was held at the home of Barbara and John Shrives. As usual, members provided a plentiful supply of snacks. There were many topics of conversation, but many members were keen to discuss their recent holidays as they consumed the yummy food. As it was a pleasant sunny evening Barbara showed some people around her beautiful garden and flowers. Overall, it was another great happy hour and eventually Doug Lawrence called everyone together and thanked John and Barbara once again for their hospitality.
